- ii. Senator of Wellness and Recreation (B. Mosco)

- 1. Attended their one-on-one with Vice President Ramprasad and used their office hour on October 11 to have more outreach with WPE; they will be attending a meeting on October 13 with Honey Krueger and Holly Godden about the WPE's goals for the year, how Senator Mosco can assist them, and any possible collaborations.

- iii. Senator of Commuters and Transportation (I. Tolteca)

- 1. Continuing to work on becoming involved with the IRA Committee and the Ad Hoc Ethnic Studies Budget Committee.

- iv. Senator of Housing and Residential Education (E. Yang)

- 1. Sent an email to CSUCI Housing about scheduling their office hour to spend with them and obtain more details on the Residence Hall Association.

- v. Senator of Veterans and Non-Traditional Students (S. Hernandez)

- 1. Vice President Ramprasad gave Senator Hernandez's report on their behalf due to technical difficulties.
 - a. Senator Hernandez plans to meet with the Director of Veterans and will be attending a meeting with Monica Rivas about Credit/No Credit options.

Senator Hernandez left the meeting.

b. Executive Reports:

i. President's (A. Rugerio)

1. Attended the ASI Board of Directors meeting on October 7 where they assigned members to the two committees of the board and President Rugerio will be serving on the Budget Allocation and Spending Committee (which looks into how money is being allocated and spent within all of ASI). The next meeting will be held on October 28 at 7:40am on Zoom, and the QR code on the fourth slide of President Rugerio's presentation provides a direct link to the website that includes the agenda and Zoom link. It can also be found at <https://asi.csuci.edu/asi-board.htm>.
2. Met with Interim President Dr. Yao and Director of Community & Government Relations Celina Zacarais alongside Vice President Ramprasad to potentially have local legislators come to a Senate meeting to talk about their roles.
3. President Rugerio and Director Quinonez attended CSSA this past weekend; the University has 400 Civic Points for the CSSA Civic challenge, and students can visit the CSSA website to see what other challenges the campus could take part in to earn points. Any questions can be emailed to President Rugerio.
4. Student Government is donating $300 to Art with Impact (an event the provides an open forum to talk about mental health).
5. Vice President Ramprasad, President Rugerio, and Senator Hernandez will meet with Monica Rivas from Academic Advising to talk about details regarding the Credit/No Credit option.

ii. Vice President's (V. Ramprasad)

1. Held one-on-ones with Senators, attended the Student Government Executive Board meeting, and met with Dr. Yao and Celina Zacarais.

iii. Chief of Staff (A. Trejo)

1. Held their one-on-ones with interns to help accommodate them and introduce them to the senators and executive team members they will be working with.
2. Met with Holly Godden from WPE who will present in the next Senate meeting the findings from last year's National College Health Assessment about the mental challenges students face.
3. Will be collaborating with President Rugerio to plan Art with Impact.

iv. Director of External Affairs (E. Quinonez)

1. Will be sitting on the CSSA Student Trustee search panel and noted that all on the panel will receive implicit bias training. Applications will close on January 31, 2022 at 5:00pm. Information regarding the search is on the CSSA website, and any questions and inquiries to be emailed to President Rugerio or Director Quinonez. Next week there will be a presentation about the CSSA meeting that was held this past weekend.

v. Director of Operations (A. Grace)

1. Reminded Senate to send emails to the Executive Team's work emails, as they may get lost if sent to their student emails.

c. Judicial Reports:

- ii. I. Tolteca yielded time to H. Alatorre
 1. Advisor Alatorre reminded Senate that a Student Government Campaign cannot take off without the participation of Senate.
- iii. I. Tolteca yielded time to A. Block-Weiss
 1. Advisor Block-Weiss suggested that the original email get sent to the Senate as a whole (rather than just ASI leads).

b. DISCUSSION ITEM: CSUCI Presidential Search Committee Update (A. Rugerio)

- i. The two student representatives on the CSUCI Presidential Search Committee are President Rugerio and Sergio Mercado, The CI View student news Editor-in-Chief. The CSU is looking for a new President for Channel Islands, and an open forum was October 12 12:00pm-2:00pm where students, staff, faculty, and community members were invited to share what qualities they want the new president to have. The deadline to submit a feedback form so it can be incorporated with the job description is October 21;

the link for more information and the link for the form is in the Student Government Instagram biography.

- ii. There are three ways for individuals to raise their voice:
 - 1. Submit feedback/input form by October 21
 - 2. Email presidentsearch@calstate.edu to submit questions and/or nominations
 - 3. Reach out to student representatives.
- iii. A discussion was held for Senate to share any professional qualifications, experiences, and personal attributes they want to see in the next President. Some that were brought up included advocacy for DACA and undocumented students, being aware of the basic needs that students require, the homeless population, considers mental health issues, and receptive to student input and feedback.
- iv. A campus global was sent out with information, links, and forms, and can also be found on the website.

9) Closing Comments:

- a. I. Tolteca: October 13 is the MDC LGBTQ+ Social from 11:00am-1:00pm in the Central Mall.
 - i. The Art Department recently lost Mary Quaife who was a prominent figure in the department; a memorial is being looked into to honor their legacy.
- b. A. Block-Weiss: The next Staff Council meeting will be held virtually on October 19 from 9:30am-11:00am, and the Zoom link is on their website. They will be talking about their shared definitions, goals for the year, the presidential search, and an upcoming staff event. Senate is welcome to join as a member of the public.
- c. A. Rugerio: The CI View News will be having their first physical newspaper of the semester in the stands on October 19.
- d. K. Ibrahim: Cocoa with the PoPo will be October 18 from 8:30am-11:30am in Central Mall and will provide free hot chocolate, coffee, and doughnuts. Funds earned from the T-Shirts and patches they are selling will go towards establishing a scholarship for those impacted by cancer.

10) Adjournment: 10:21am

Background/Updates:

- Dr. Yao is currently our Interim President, the Presidential Search Committee is working to appoint our next University President.
- There was an Open Forum, yesterday 10/12 from noon to 2pm where students/staff/faculty/ community members could share to the committee what qualities they would like to see our next Campus President to have.
 - There was very low attendance and speakers at the event.
 - Only 8 public comments were made.

Background/Updates:

- We are still encouraging students/staff/faculty/community members to share their feedback/input regarding professional qualifications, experiences, and personal attributes you think our next Campus President should possess to be successful and empower and uplift our campus.
