[TIME CERTAIN: 9:05am]
- i. Presentation and Draft Policy will be included in Senate Packet and on Student Government Website. Representative from the Faculty Affairs Committee (FAC) - Stephen Clark, Chair of Global Languages and Cultures committee, presented on Faculty Office Hours Policy.
  - ii. Background
    - 1. CSUCI is an outlier in the CSU system in that we do not provide faculty with guidelines for structuring their office hours, which may leave room for ambiguity.
    - 2. Three office hours per week is the most common guideline across other CSU campuses.
    - 3. It's common for required office hours to be prorated to the number of units one is teaching.
    - 4. Policy would leave modality for Office hours to be up to the instructor.
  - iii. Changes since the first reading included
    - 1. Policy Title "Faculty Office Hours"
    - 2. Would to all types of classes
    - 3. Finals exam week – office hours optional and can be by appointment only
    - 4. Maximum of three per week: colleges/departments can't require more
    - 5. Organized into two sections
      - a. A: Scheduling and number of office hours
      - b. B: Modality and notification
    - 6. Faculty would also be asked to notify department to finalize their office hours by the end of the first week of the semester.
  - iv. Senate asked for clarification on what WTU is, presenter defined as Weighted Teaching Unit, which are also referred to as Credit Units.
  - v. Senate provided student feedback received during their outreach that expressed
    - 1. Agreeing with minimum guidelines
    - 2. A suggestion for a campus wide survey for the student body to engage directly with the policy
    - 3. Reluctancy for having a maximum in the policy if this is brought up to Academic Senate
    - 4. In general, students shared that most faculty are accommodating and make themselves available for students

- vi. Senate also shared that some professors incentivize office hour attendance by providing extra credit to students who attend
- vii. Senate provided student feedback they received during their outreach regarding obstacles to meeting with Faculty which were expressed as
  - 1. Issues regarding office hour cancellations without being notified via email, Canvas, or posting a note on their office door
  - 2. Meeting with professors may be intimidating to some students. Senate also shared experience of office hours feeling like transactional meetings, or students may feel like a burden if the faculty member is visibly working on another task during attendance
    - a. Senate shared experience with Asynchronous course in which the professor held office hours from 9-10pm. When asking the professor to read an essay before submitting, the professor stated their time is very valuable and did not read the student's essay. The Department Chair was mentioned a resource for students to reach out if they encounter any issues regarding their professors and office hours.
    - b. Presenter encouraged students to not be afraid to contact the department chair
  - 3. Senate mentioned how scheduling an appointment through email may prolong the conversation and set back proficiency due to the difficulties of finding an optional appointment time for both faculty and students. Senate mentioned that some professors provide a link to calendar booking pages which allows students to select potential meeting times at mutually available times.
- viii. Senate inquired about how students should proceed if they are unable to attend a professor's scheduled office hours
  - 1. Presenter mentioned professors will be expected to accommodate to a reasonable extent.
- ix. Senate shared that students voiced concerns over a maximum being imposed on office hours
  - 1. Presenter clarified that some faculty will be available for a minimum of three hours. In terms of the maximum, the policy is intended to say that all departments cannot require a minimum of anything above 3 hours, faculty can always hold more office hours if they desire.
- x. Yield of Time to Director Fox from Senator Ruiz: mentioned feedback that most students are happy with faculty office hours as most professors are accommodating. Personally agreed with scheduling through email prolongs the meeting process. Further expressing that "expected" is not a strong piece of language and encourages the change to "required."
  - 1. Presenter clarified that the minimum would be 3 hours and further requiring faculty to accommodate to a reasonable extent if students can't attend the scheduled hours.

- xi. V.P. Guajardo agreed regarding the language for “required” rather than “expected.” Shared Academic Senate Executive Committee feedback which mentioned the possibility of including the Department Chair Contact information in course syllabi. At this meeting, faculty also shared that many students can only attend by appointment only. Request from students is to provide clarification regarding A. #7 that it pertains specifically to department requirements.
    - 1. Presenter shared that FAC is also working on a syllabus policy, and will share the suggestion of including contact information from the respective department chairs and request for clarification regarding A. #7 feedback with FAC.
  - xii. Yield of time to Director Fox from Senator Gil: Agreed that including Department Chair contact in syllabi would be helpful.
  - xiii. Senate also encouraged faculty to have their door open or a sign that says they are in their office and provided examples of staff on campus who have a sign reading “in a meeting, out of office, or in office/available.”
  - xiv. VP Guajardo emphasized that if Academic Senate is brought to vote on a maximum for office hours, students have deeply expressed their concerns regarding a maximum for office hours. Additionally, suggested to recommend platforms such as Calendly and Microsoft Bookings to be used as booking platforms, to be included in the policy only as recommendations.
  - xv. Senate also discussed concerns related to faculty being compensated for the time for their office hours.
    - 1. Presenter expressed that the Collective Bargaining Agreements states office hours are required as part of their job description as Faculty, and therefore compensated for their office hours.
  - xvi. Yield of time to Director Fox from Senator Gil: If faculty office hours are required, then this should be reflected in the policy. Professors are not expected to teach their class, they are required to teach their class.
  - xvii. Discussion concluded, and the presenter was thanked for their time.
- b. DISCUSSION ITEM: Student Feedback on Department of Homeland Security Career Fair
Attendance (D. Rodriguez)
- i. Many students expressed concern and were discouraged that they had to find out about the presence of Department of Homeland Security at the Career Fair on April 17th via Instagram. It was also expressed that this is especially concerning as CSUCI is a Hispanic Serving Institution with undocumented student populations.
  - ii. Senate shared hearing concerns about the Department of Homeland Security’s presence. The factor of intimidation is still there despite Homeland Security being dressed in business attire and interacting with students regarding job opportunities. Students also shared personal experience being questioned about citizenship outside of campus.

- iii. Senate also mentioned that the Career Fair originally suggested having an email sent to only undocumented students. The campus does not have access to this information and can be interpreted as targeting a particular group of students.
  - iv. A campus wide announcement is expected to be made today.
    - 1. Senate expressed concerns regarding the late notice of this email.
  - v. Inclusive Student Services (ISS) made an Instagram post regarding this topic on Monday. Senate mentioned students may feel deterred from attending the Career Fair due to concerns of asking Employers if they can sponsor their visas, and fear of being overheard by Homeland Security.
  - vi. The outlet of communication was further discussed. Many students don't have Instagram or don't follow CI departments, this is very paralyzing to students if being notified upon arrival to this event.
  - vii. Senate further clarified that they have heard these concerns from both undergraduate and graduate students.
  - viii. VP Guajardo provided feedback at the Preparedness Working Group (PWG) on April 3rd

    - 3. PWG also expressed since CSUCI is federally funded the campus is unable to decline participation from the Department of Homeland Security at the Career Fair.
