

The Chancellor's Doctoral Incentive Program (CDIP)

The goal of the California State University Chancellor's Doctoral Incentive Program (CDIP) is to increase the number of faculty with the qualifications, motivation, and skills needed to teach the diverse students of the CSU.

CDIP prepares promising doctoral students for CSU faculty positions by providing financial support, mentorship by CSU faculty and professional development and grant resources. It is the largest program of its kind in the U.S.

Apply to CDIP

The Chancellor's Doctoral Incentive Program application is now OPEN for the 2024-2025 academic year. For the 2024-2025 academic year, take the first step and contact a CSU Campus Coordinator (/csu-system/faculty-staff/cdip/Pages/campus-coordinators.aspx) to discuss your academic goals. If you are not clear on who to contact, you may contact the staff (/csu-system/faculty-staff/cdip/Pages/staff-and-contact.aspx) at Chancellor's Doctoral Incentive Program for more information.

Interested candidates Apply directly below and download our Application Guidelines.
