

One Health as global initiative and CSUCI vision health and wellbeing of all is interconnected

- people (communities and individuals)
- environment (plants and animals)
- economy

One Health Commission's mission:

- to improve health and well-being of all
- to promote resilience
- through education and networks of collaboration

University of Alaska, Fairbanks

• Effect ●Collak Skills resilie •Syster Transdisciplinarit Social, cultural ar Values and inclusiveness Attitudes Collective learnir practice •One H oTheore Knowledge and metho • Harnes Awareness parado kmowle

One Health Core Competencies

Disciplinary-specific expertise + transferable knowledge and skill sets

• Effect Collab Skills resilie System Transdisciplinarit Social, cultural ar Values and inclusiveness Attitudes Collective learnir practice o One H oTheore Knowledge and inn eith o • Harnes Awareness parado knowle

One Health Core Competencies

Disciplinary-specific expertise + transferable knowledge and skill sets

effective workforce development, industries, and problem-solving

- community engagement and collaboration
- interdisciplinarity across and between fields
- experiential learning in real-world settings
- emphasis on benefits to humankind, economy, and environment regionally and globally

CSUCI's Mission Pillars are in One Health!

- interdisciplinary and collaborative
- experiential learning
- career preparation and pipelines
- personal transformation

 conservation projects with partners – example: NOAA Marine Debris Removal Program

Ocean Collective on the Central Coast includes:

Commercial Fishermen of Santa Barbara

Santa Barbara City College

CSU Channel Islands

Other academic, industry, and conservation partners

Unique Sense of Place - Regional Assets

The Channel Islands protected by the Channel Islands National Park & Channel Islands Marine Sanctuary

Santa Monica Mountains that form the eastern border of campus

Port Hueneme as the only deep water port between San Diego and San Francisco

Naval Base Ventura County as a hub of Pacific Fleet operations and major employer

11th largest county in crop value

Biggest independent biotech firms in the world

Place-Based Campus Assets

Ancestral lands of the Chumash - home to the Barbareño Ventureño Band of Mission Indians and the sacred hill of sathwiwa

Santa Rosa Island Research Station as one of only 11 universities with a field station in a National Park

Channel Islands Boating Center in Channel Islands Harbor

Future home for the Santa Barbara Zoo Conservation Center: First Zoo-Owned and Managed Facility on a University Campus

Engagement in Coastal Health & Ocean Affairs

Vision: What will Our Envisioned Future Look Like?

Core values, organization's purpose

Graphic developed applying Gallagher, A., & Thordarson, K. (2018). Design Thinking for School Leaders: Five Roles and Mindsets that Ignite Positive Change. ASCD T. Itkonen for the One Health working group 12.8.2023.

